The personal information you have supplied is being collected by Datacom on behalf of the Board of Trustees of the National Provident Fund (Board), as administrator of your current National Provident Fund Scheme (Scheme). The information collected in this form will be held by Datacom and will be stored electronically within New Zealand. It will be used to process your application to join the Scheme under this form. It may also be used to contact you in the future.

The information may be exchanged between the Board and Datacom. It may be disclosed to third parties, such as Annuitas Management Limited (provider of executive office/secretariat services to the Board), agents of or advisers to the Board or Datacom or other government departments in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993 for the purposes of the ongoing management and administration of the Board, the National Provident Fund schemes and to enable the Board to fulfil its statutory or legal obligations, such as for tax reporting or anti-money laundering requirements. If you do not provide the information requested, we may not be able to process any election and/or update your member record, as set out in this form.

Under the Privacy Act 1993, you have the right to request any personal information which the Board holds about you; you may request correction of the information; you may request that there be attached to the information a statement of any correction sought but not made. The Board may charge you a fee for the reasonable costs of responding to any of these requests.

By providing your email address you consent to Datacom and the Board contacting you by email regarding your entitlements in the Scheme and other information about services, as appropriate. You agree, pursuant to the unsolicited Electronic Messages Act 2007, that the person sending any message need not include a functional unsubscribe facility in the message
